Newsletter 22nd June 2026

Dear parents,

FAMILIES/CULTURE DAY 2026

Pupils and families had a great day learning and celebrating different traditions and cultures. Grandparents, mums and dads came to school and explained some of their families' well-loved celebrations, songs, stories, dress and food. It was lovely to see so many families buying and enjoying the treats sold at the end of the day – we all enjoyed a huge range of food from different cultures and backgrounds.

Bhangra Demonstration by Sian (Year 5)

The whole school was treated to an exceptional display of Asian dance/music by Sian. The performance was highly polished and a joyous way to celebrate Culture Day.

Year 6 Heathrow Explorers

Every year, Year 6 enjoy the company of volunteers from Heathrow Airport. The volunteers explain to pupils the complex organisation that an international airport has to ensure things run smoothly and safely. The pupils were introduced to jobs, roles and processes of a very important local organisation/industry.

PTA 2026 Challenge

Thank you to all those who took part in the £20.26 challenge! Well done to the winners for most amount raised, most individual way and most creative. And to Reception who were the class who raised the most in total 🙌

With your help and fantastic ideas, you raised £1,134 🙌

PTA has kindly donated cards, envelopes and craft pieces for Father's Day that was on Sunday, 21st June 2026. Thank you for this kind gesture.
